2:00 THE SPONSOR (Part I)
In what way does the sponsor, potentate of our time, influence commercial radio and television programming? Every sponsor wants, and usually gets the program his/her company name will be associated with. Overt sponsor interference is no longer necessary because the whole industry has adjusted itself to their needs. This program is the first of four consisting of readings from Erik Barnouw's The Sponsor which chronicles how Americans are manipulated and sold via the air waves for the profit of a few.

Worth listening to with headphones on --high fidelity. Performed by Lyle Ekdahl, Alan B. Back, Bruce McCulloch.

9:30 ATTENTION HIGH ROLLERS AND ARRESTED ADOLESCENTS!
Fred Katz hosts rock & roll grand master Dean Silverstone in an unprecedented musical tour-de-force. Mr. Silverstone began collecting records in high school, and now has an inventory of approximately 1 million 45s--which contains probably every song that drove you to ecstasy and your parents to drink. Now that the folks are resigned to the fact that rock and roll is here to stay, are they ready for this? Those despised discs that featured screaming, illiterate idiots, unintelligible lyrics and rhythms that eroded morals, aside from being considered art, are now worth Big Bucks. Yes, Mom and Dad, eat your hearts out. On tonight's show, maestro Dean will provide 90 min. of records from the 1950s all of which are valued at $100-$1500. Some of the artists you'll hear probably for the first time are Arthur "Big Boy" Grady, Al Collins, The Velvetones, Gene Simmons, and Little Bo. Why not record this and give to the folks for Mother's Day.

11:00 BUMBLING WITH BALTIC
Jazz and other eccentricities, tonight featuring keyboard players of all sorts (and, for that regular listener from New York, some Wynton Kelly). Turn out the lights and listen to some finger play.

10:50 EXPERIMENTS IN CONSCIOUSNESS
Five short shows over five consecutive days are designed to demonstrate certain ESP abilities. Listeners as well as studio guests will together concentrate on specific tasks, described below. The hope is that somehow our mind power might add up culminatively, to produce a demonstration more definitive than an individual beating chance by an inconclusive fractional percentage. #1. Through our collective energy we can move mountains, but tonight we simply levitate a pencil.

THE JACK STRAW MEMORIAL FOUNDATION

The Jack Straw Memorial Foundation is a private, non-profit organization dedicated solely to the guidance and support of KRAB-FM. The volunteer Board of Trustees guide the direction of the station and set general policy. In its seventeenth year of broadcasting, KRAB continues to dedicate its airwaves to the freedom of expression through a variety of cultures, music and spoken arts, and political issues. While the station does not espouse any particular cultural, political or social philosophy, it encourages programming that is diverse and often controversial. KRAB is a member of the National Federation of Community Broadcasters.
